

Organization of the Russian Army
As Reported by General Rozniecki on
14 September 1811

1st Corps: General Wittgenstein (in Riga)
5th Division (in Samogitie & Courland)
14th Division (in Samogitie & Courland)
Cavalry Division of General Kokhovski
(in Samogitie & Courland)

2nd Corps: General Baggovout (in Vilna)
4th Division (In Vilna, Mohilev & Polotsk)
17th Division (In Vilna, Mohilev & Polotsk)
Cavalry Division of General Korff
(In Vilna, Mohilev & Polotsk)

3rd Corps: General Essen in Slonim
3rd Division (In Grodno & Minsk)
11th Division (In Grodno & Minsk)
Cavalry Division: General Pahlen
(In Grodno & Minsk)

4th Corps: General Docturov (Replaced by Bagration in October)
7th Division: General Kapsevitch
25th Division: General Likhatchev (4 musketeer regiments only)
Cavalry Division of General Tchlapitz (in Vinnitza and Kiev, but in December it moved between and the Dniester)

Brest

Cossacks:
24 Regiments en echelon on the frontier.

Reserves:
Grenadier Division (4 regiments) (between Vilna & Dwina)
24th Infantry Division (near Kiev)
Cuirassier Division: General Knorring
(4 cuirassier & 1 Uhlan regiments) (Near Ouman and in the Ukraine)
Cuirassier Division: General Depreradovitch (8 cuirassier
& 9 chasseur squadrons) (Near Revel & Riga)