

Russian White "Volunteer" Army
1 February to 22 June 1918

The Great "White" Army in Southern Russia and on the North Caucasus. This army ordered organized on 9 January 1918. it formed, primarily, in the Don and Kuban regions with former officers of imperial Russian army, students and Cossacks. It was formed with volunteers so it was subsequently given the title of "Volunteer". In January 1919 it formed the ucleus of the "Armed Forces of South Russia".

As of 1 February 1918:

Commander-in-chief: infantry General L.G. Kornilov
Staff Superior: major General I. P. Romanovskiy

1st Summary Officer Regiment: Lieutenant General S.L. Markov
1st Officer Battalion
2nd Officer Battalion
3rd Officer Battalion
Militarily-sea Company
Mounted "Death" Division

Kornilovskiy Shock Regiment: Captain Nezhentsev

Partisan Regiment: Major General P. Bogaevskiy

Cadet Battalion: Major General Borovskiy
Cadet "Regiment"
Student "Regiment"

Czechoslovak Engineering Battalion: Captain Nemitchek

Cavalry Regiment:
1st Partisan Division
2nd Don Division
3rd Officer Division
Artillery Division (4 batteries)

General quantity: about 4000 men, 8 field guns.

As of 22 June 1918 the Volunteer Army was organized as follows:

Commander-in-chief: lieutenant General I. Denikin
Army Staff:
Staff Superior: Major General I. P. Romanovskiy
Superior of Combatants Department: Major General S. Trukhachev
Provision Superior: Colonel Maltsev
Artillery Inspector: Major General Nevadovskiy
Superior Medical Department: N. Rodzianko

1st Division: Lieutenant General S.L. Markov
1st Officer Infantry Regiment
1st Kuban Rifle Regiment
1st Horse Regiment

1st Independent light Battery (3 guns)
1st Engineering Company

2nd Division: Major General Borovskiy
Kornilovskiy Shock Regiment
Partisan Infantry Regiment
Ulagaevskiy Plastunskiy (foot) Battalion
4th Summary Kuban Horse Regiment
2nd Independent Light Battery (3 guns)
2nd Engineering Company

3rd Division: Colonel G. Drozdovskiy
2nd Officer Rifle Regiment
2nd Equestrian Regiment
3rd Independent Light Battery (6 guns)
Horse-mountain Battery (4 guns)
Mortar Battery (2 mortars)
3rd Engineering Company

1st Cavalry Division: General of Infantry I.G. Erdeli
1st Kuban Cossack Regiment
1st Circassian Horse Regiment
1st Caucasian Cossack Regiment
1st Black Sea Cossack Regiment

1st Kuban Cossack Brigade: Major General V.L. Pokrovskiy
2nd Kuban Cossack Regiment
3rd Kuban Cossack Regiment
Artillery Platoon (2 guns)

Independent Plastunskiy (foot) Battalion
Armored Cars Detachment (3 cars)
Don Home Guard Detachment: Colonel I.F. Bykadorov

General quantity: about 9,000 bayonets and sabers, 21 vehicles and 3 armored car.

Source: Denikin I., White Movement and the Struggle of the Volunteer Army, Moscow: 1992. - P. 247-248.

Copyright GFN 2001