ANNOUNCING the 2010 General William E. DePuy Combined Arms Center Writing Competition

“Building Rigor and Relevance into Home Station Training”

While commander of the U.S. Training and Doctrine Command (TRADOC) from 1973 to 1975, General William E. DePuy established the first Army-wide standards for individual and collective training and education. This year, we seek ideas to continue his vision of educating leaders at all levels to creatively respond to future unknown conditions, threats, and resources. Submissions should be original, well-researched essays 3,500 to 5,000 words long.
