

Mr. James F. Benn

Deputy Director Combined Arms Doctrine Directorate

Jim Benn is a native of Birmingham, Alabama and a 1975 graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York. He retired from the Army in 1999 and has been a Department of the Army Civilian employee since 2000. While on active duty, his assignments included tours as a Platoon leader and Battery Commander in a 2d Battalion, 57th Air Defense Artillery in Ansbach, Germany; Operations Officer in the 205th Aviation Company in Mainz, Germany; Staff Aviation Officer for the 4th Transportation Command, Frankfurt, Germany; Company Commander, A Company, 5th Battalion, 159th Aviation Regiment, Schwaebisch-Hall, Germany; Director, Logistics Operations, Aviation and Troop Command, St. Louis, Missouri; and Deputy Brigade Commander, 6th U.S. Cavalry Brigade, Camp Humphrey, Korea.

Jim is a graduate of the Air Defense Artillery Officer Basic and Advanced Courses, the Rotary Wing Aviator Course, and the Army Command and General Staff College. His military awards and decorations include the Bronze Star, the Meritorious Service Medal and the Air Medal. He has a Master's Degree in Human Resource Development from Webster University. He is currently the Deputy Director of the Combined Arms Doctrine Directorate at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.