

Job Position: Knowledge Access Manager

Frederick L. (Lee) Finch

Brief introduction: Certified Knowledge Management Professional, currently serving as the BCKS Knowledge Access Team Leader. Retired Army since April 1995. Over 24 years active duty: Infantry, Maintenance, Supply, Inspector General. Platoon through Theater levels. Knowledge manager, multimedia programmer, graphic artist, web developer, training developer, professional musician, actor.

Most recent experience: Worked on the Battle Command Knowledge System team since its creation in 2004. Operation Iraqi Freedom Study Group for the Center for Army Lessons Learned. Intermediate Level Education interactive training programmer and graphic artist. Multimedia Team Leader for production of the Army Digital Division and Corps Training Support Plan, both online and on CD.

Education: Bachelor of Music Education, Henderson State University; Master of Science in Logistics Management, Florida Institute of Technology. Certified Knowledge Manager (CKM™) and Certified Knowledge Management Professional (CKMP™).

Personal interests: The arts. Specifically music and theater. Oh yes, and Cruising to the Caribbean and Hawaii.