

Ms. Victoria A. Calhoun
Senior Military Analyst, Alion Science and Technology
Headquarters Department of the Army DCS G-3/5/7 Training
Army Knowledge Management,

Ms. Victoria A. Calhoun is a Senior Military analyst with Alion Science and Technology supporting HQDA G-3/5/7 Training Directorate. A retired Army Aviation officer, Ms. Calhoun served at all echelons of command from Joint to TRADOC, and the tactical level, serving twice as a company commander, for a Headquarters, Headquarters Company, and a CH-47 Company Commander in the Republic of Korea. Ms. Calhoun has a total of twenty years of active Army experience and five years as a contractor supporting HQDA Army G-3/5/7 Training Directorate.

Since 2003 Ms. Calhoun has been the HQDA Army Training staff officer for knowledge management matters, working in concert with Battle Command/ LandWarNet advancing KM in the Army. She personally supported the development of the BCKS Capability Production Document (CPD) and continually supports the integration of KM concepts and operations in Army training policy and processes at the HQDA level. In close coordination with the DCS G-3/5/7 Battle Command/ LandWarNet Directorate, she serves as the BCKS and KM action officer for the G-3/7 Training Directorate, and the Joint Knowledge Development and Distribution Capability (JKDDC) initiative.

Ms. Calhoun is a 1983 graduate of Mary Baldwin College in Staunton, Virginia and holds a Master of Military Arts and Science degree from Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. She is a Certified Knowledge Manager (CKM) and member of the Knowledge Management Professional Society (KMPro) .