

Mr. John Wright CKM, CKEE
Team Lead,
Battle Command Knowledge System
Training, Education and Professional Development

Mr. John Wright is the primary Knowledge Management Trainer and one of the original designers of the BCKS Basic Knowledge Management Course.

Currently John is a contractor for Dynamics Research Corporation, part of Team CSC support to BCKS. As an original employee of Battle Command Knowledge System, he has been involved in every aspect of the program, including content management, forum facilitation, strategic communications and was assigned as the Mobile Training Team Chief. He is currently assigned as the Lead for Training, Education and Professional Development section. He is trained in Command and General Staff College's Faculty Development Program emphasizing adult learning models, primarily the Experiential Learning Model. He holds two certifications in Knowledge Management as well as being certified as a Knowledge Environment Engineer.

Militarily he retired in 2004 with over 30 years of military experience. His career started with the US Navy in 1971 as a radioman aboard the Nuclear Fast Attack Submarine USS Sandlance (SSN660). His most recent significant assignment was Commander, 175th Military Police Battalion, Missouri Army National Guard. He also commanded a battalion HHD and two (2) Military Police Companies, one combat support and one heavy security company. As a fulltime National Guard Soldier his assignments included battalion and brigade level operations and was assigned as the State Mobilization and Readiness Officer.