

Mr. Frank J. Gorski III

Chief, Army Battle Command System Integration Division, Digital Leader Development Center, Command and General Staff College

Frank J. Gorski III currently serves as Chief, Army Battle Command System Integration Division, Digital Leader Development Center (DLDC), Command and General Staff College (CGSC). He is responsible for all Army Battle Command System (ABCS) and other enabling battle command system instruction and curriculum development in CGSC.

Prior to retirement from active duty in 2005, the then LTC Gorski was assigned duties as Deputy Director, DLDC. He was assigned to CGSC in 2000 as a Combined Arms and Services Staff School (CAS3) instructor and later assigned as the chief for the Preparation for Combat committee. Other key assignments include Chief, Inspections, U. S. Army, Pacific, Inspector General, Fort Shafter, Hawaii and Chief, Combat Arms Assistance Division, Readiness Group McCoy, Fort McCoy, Wisconsin.

He was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Field Artillery upon graduation from the University of Wisconsin Stevens Point in 1980. He has commanded units at the battery and company level and has held staff positions at battalion, brigade, Joint Task Force, and MACOM levels. In 2005 he received a masters degree in Computer Resources and Information Management.