

Ivan Anaya
Warfighters' Forum Integrator
Knowledge Management Branch, Strategic Initiatives Division, G-3/5/7
U.S. Army Forces Command
Fort McPherson, GA

Ivan Anaya is the Knowledge Management Specialist primarily serving as a Warfighters' Forum Integrator for the U.S. Forces Command at Fort McPherson, Georgia.

He served in the Army from 2001 to 2007 as an Armor officer. He served as a platoon leader and Troop XO in the 2nd Infantry Division with 4-7 Cavalry at Camp Garry Owen, Korea. He commanded a Reconnaissance, Surveillance, and Target Acquisition troop in the 101st Airborne Division. From 2005 to 2006, he served in Iraq and was awarded the Bronze Star medal.

He serves in his current position advancing KM initiatives and the Warfighters' Forum. His team's efforts were recently recognized by receiving the Army Knowledge Management Award, in the People category, from the Army CIO/G-6 during the 2009 LandWarNet Conference.

Ivan received a Bachelors of Science degree from the United States Military Academy studying Foreign Areas, specializing in Latin America. He received the Knowledge Management certification from KMPro.