Mr. Kirby is Vice President and General Manager of the Army/Land division for the North American Public Sector (NPS) Defense Group. In this role, he is responsible for overseeing the CSC operations that support the Army's land programs. The Army/Land division provides expertise in knowledge management; logistics deployment and distribution; command, control and communications; information technology infrastructure and identity management. Mr. Kirby also has client responsibility for the entire Army account, including contracts and task orders across CSC.

Previously Mr. Kirby was with BearingPoint, where he was responsible for creating a comprehensive change management solution across the federal government. From 2005 to 2008, he served as Deputy Under Secretary of the Army for Business Transformation (DUSA - BT). In this role, he was responsible for implementing the U.S. Army's business transformation initiatives, which included continuous process improvement, business situational awareness, organizational analysis and design, and professional development. Additionally, Mr. Kirby directed the Army's largest deployment of Lean Six Sigma ever undertaken.

During his service in the Army, he was a combat arms officer and commanded a tank battalion during the first Persian Gulf conflict. His assignments included tours in the Office of the Army Chief of Staff as well as the Joint Staff. Mr. Kirby received a Bachelor of Science degree in engineering from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, a Master of Science in national security strategy from the National War College and a Master of Business Administration from the Harvard Business School.
