

Joint Firepower Course Mobile Training Team Ft. Hood, 22-28 July 2012

What: Joint Firepower Course 12-709

When: 22-28 July 2012

Who: 3<sup>d</sup> Cavalry Regiment and 1st Cavalry Division

Where: Fort Hood, Texas

Instructors:

AJST-N: LTC Santamaria, MAJ Adams

AJST-H: Mr. Barry Murray

6th CTS: Maj Dennis, Capt McCroan

Students: 53

Summary: On 23 July 2012, 3<sup>d</sup> Cavalry Regiment hosted members of Army Joint Support Team – Nellis, 6th Combat Training Squadron, and Mr. Barry Murray from AJST-Hurlburt at Fort Hood in Texas to provide the Joint Firepower Course to Brave Rifles Soldiers and Soldiers from 1st Cavalry Division. Fifty-three students attended the course with ranks ranging from E3 to O3. 3<sup>d</sup> Cavalry Regiment is making the transition to a Stryker Brigade Combat Team. The unit provided not only their fire supporters for the training, but also a good mix of maneuver leadership at the platoon and troop levels.

Statistics:

- Class was composed of Fires, Infantry, and Electronic Warfare occupational specialties
- 50 of 53 students graduated

Mr. Murray provides instruction to Soldiers from 3d CR and 1st Cav Div

Captured Enemy Vehicles on display at the 3rd Cavalry Regiment Museum

Phantom Warrior Statue stands before III Corps Headquarters at Fort Hood, Texas

