

Army Joint Support Team-Nellis

Joint Firepower Course Mobile Training Team, FT Huachuca, AZ

What: Joint Firepower Course 12-704

When: 20-24 February 2012

Who: E Company, 160th Special Operations Aviation Regiment

Where: Fort Huachuca, Arizona

Instructors:

AJST-N: LTC Karlis Krievins, LTC Rob Santamaria

AJST-H: Mr. Ralph Crawford

6th CTS: CAPT Mike Watkins, CAPT Robert Arena

Students: 32

Summary: On 19 February 2012, members of Army Joint Support Team – Nellis, 6th Combat Training Squadron, and Instructor Ralph Crawford from AJST-Hurlburt traveled to Fort Huachuca to provide the Joint Firepower Course to members of Echo Company, 160th Special Operations Aviation Regiment. Thirty-two students attended the course with ranks ranging from E3 to O4 and two Government Civilians. Fort Huachuca provided excellent training facilities with plenty of technical support.

Statistics:

- One student (O4) was 13 series, all others were Intel MOS
- 28 of 32 students graduated
- One E4 and three E3s did not pass the course, time in Army ranged from nine months to three years

-For information to coordinate a JFC MTT please contact

Karlis.krievins@nellis.af.mil

Fort Huachuca, Arizona – Home to US Army Intelligence

Established in 1877

Capt Arena teaches OPS113K CAS Mission Planning

“Eyes of the Army” Statue in front of the Fort Huachuca Museum

