

Army Joint Support Team-Hurlburt

Partners with Air Force 505th CCW to Serve Community

Summary:

•On 14 March 2012, members of the Army Joint Support Team (AJST) located at Hurlburt Field, Florida volunteered to deliver meals as part of the Meals on Wheels program of Fort Walton Beach, Fla.

•The Air Force 505th Command and Control Wing established a volunteer program to support the Meals on Wheels effort. AJST Director, COL Mark Fassl and members of the AJST team will continue to support this program and other volunteerism opportunities to strengthen the community and serve others.

•The Meals On Wheels Association of America is the oldest and largest national organization composed of and representing local, community-based Senior Nutrition Programs in all 50 U.S. states, as well as the U.S. Territories. For more information, visit <http://www.mowaa.org>.

•Pictured right are LTC Jason Jones, AJST Instructor, and Mrs. Frankie Moore, 505th CCW, delivering meals to seven seniors in the local community. Delivering meals is as rewarding to the volunteers as it is to the recipients. It provides a unique opportunity to engage with the citizens we signed up to serve.

LTC Jason Jones and Mrs. Frankie Moore deliver meals to community