

Command and General Staff College Library Collection

This is an unrestricted collection documenting the history and administration of the Command and General Staff College library with material from 1910 to the present. It contains eight boxes of items such as annual reports, handbooks and guides, general histories, correspondence, policies, bibliographies, catalogs, and photographs. The collections also includes three boxes of material on the planning, construction, and relocation to the new Combined Arms Research Library (CARL) facilities at Eisenhower Hall in 1994. An unprocessed box of material on the development of the Army Tactical and Operational Research Library (ATORL) is also included. A detailed finding aid is available in the CARL Archives.
