"Moral Combat" shipped to Army units

RIGHT—The "Moral Combat" version of the "America's Army" game is being shipped to Army units. This game transforms traditional Army ethics education into an interactive experience capitalizing on the popularity and success of "America's Army." Breaking away from traditional, case-study based instruction, the Center for the Army Profession and Ethic (CAPE) adds a series of challenging ethical scenarios to the game's maps, missions, and objectives.
