

1SG Audrey X. Daugherty was born at Fort Carson, Colorado. She joined the Army in April 2003 and attended both basic training and advanced training at Ft Jackson SC, and awarded the MOS 42A Human Resources Specialist.

During her tenure, 1SG Daugherty has served in a myriad of leadership positions to include Operations NCO, Basic Combat Training Senior Drill Sergeant, Senior HR Sergeant, Protocol NCO, and as a squad leader for the Combined Security Transition Command Afghanistan, Joint Visitors Bureau Security team while deployed.

Units of Assignment include HHC 34th Support Grp in Yongsan, Korea, 1-11th Aviation Regiment, Fort Rucker AL, 206th Military Intelligence Battalion, Fort Gordon GA, Combined Security Transition Command- Afghanistan (CSTC-A) Joint Visitors Bureau, Kabul Afghanistan, HQs 3rd Battalion 13th Infantry Regt. Fort Jackson SC, 193rd Infantry Bde, Fort Jackson, SC, Bravo Company 3rd Battalion 60th Infantry Regt, HQs 3rd Battalion 60th Infantry Regt. She is currently assigned to the Special Troops Battalion as an Operations NCO attached to the Army University CCDD.

1SG Daugherty's military education includes the Company CDR/1SG Pre-Command Course, Battle Staff, SHARP course, Drill Sergeant School, Basic Instructors Course, Combat Lifesaver Course, Manpower Force Management course, Combatives Level 1, Master Resiliency Trainer Course, Senior Leaders Course, Advanced Leaders Course, Basic Leaders Course, Pregnancy Post- Partum course, Equal Opportunity Course, Unit Prevention Leaders course, Action Officer Development Course, Manager Development course and the Faculty Development Program Phase 1 Course.

1SG Daugherty civilian education includes a Bachelor's of Science in Criminal Justice from Troy University with a minor in Military Science. She is currently enrolled in at Widener University pursuing her Master's degree in Clinical Social Work.