

U.S. Army Combined Arms Center
and Fort Leavenworth

Mr. Jeff LaMoe

Chief of Staff
Combined Arms Center,
Combined Arms Center - Education and Command and General Staff College Fort Leavenworth, Kansas

Mr. LaMoe is the Chief of Staff for the Combined Arms Center - Education and the Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. He is the principle advisor to the Deputy Commanding General for planning, resourcing, and daily operations at the Command and General Staff College, in addition to general operational guidance and tracking across the enterprise that includes the: Combat Studies Institute, Military Review, Defense Language Institute, Warrant Officer Career College, TRADOC Cultural Center, and the Western Hemisphere Institute for Security Cooperation.

Mr. LaMoe is from Littleton, Colorado and a Distinguished Military Graduate from Colorado State University. A retired Colonel, he served on active duty from 1979 to 2005 in a wide variety of leadership assignments as a combat engineer. He commanded the 168th Combat Engineer Battalion, was the senior combat engineer trainer at the National Training Center, and served as Commandant of the National Geospatial-Intelligence School for the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency. He has served as an Associate Professor at the United States Military Academy and Director of Training at the U.S. Army Engineer School.

Mr. LaMoe is a graduate of the Army Airborne and Ranger Schools, and earned Master Degrees from Michigan State University and the U.S. Army War College. He has published articles on regional geology, geomorphology, combat engineering, and geospatial-intelligence education. His awards include the Defense Superior Service Medal and Legion of Merit.

