

Ike Skelton Combined Arms Research Library
Command and General Staff College
Archives Vertical File Collection

Contains files on various aspects of the history, organization, and development of the Command and General Staff College (CGSC) beginning with its establishment in 1881 to the present. The bulk of the collection consists of topical files that are arranged alphabetically and cover non-biographical subjects. For biographical files of prominent persons associated with CGSC see the main Vertical File collection located in the Archives. The collection is located in the Archives.

Below is an inventory and finding aid to this collection.
