

Ike Skelton Combined Arms Research Library Archives Fort Leavenworth Vertical File Collection

Archives contains files on various aspects of the history, organization, and development of Fort Leavenworth beginning with its establishment in 1827 to the present. The collection also includes material pertaining to its role as the TRADOC Combined Arms Center (CAC). The bulk of the collection consists of topical files that are arranged alphabetically and cover non-biographical subjects.

For biographical files of prominent persons associated with Fort Leavenworth see the main Vertical File collection located in the Archives.

The collection is located in the Archives on the third floor of the library. Below is an inventory and finding aid to this collection.
