

Colonel Frederick Snyder

Director
Training Management Directorate

Colonel Frederick R. Snyder is a native of Mantua New Jersey and commissioned as an Armor Officer after graduating from Frostburg State University (Frostburg Maryland) in 1995. He is a graduate of the Armor Officer Basic and Advance Course, the Naval War College (ILE), and the Malaysian Armed Forces Defense College. COL Snyder holds a Master of Arts in National Security & Strategic Studies from the Naval War College and a Master of Science in Warfare Studies from the Malaysian Armed Forces Defense College.

COL Snyder has served in numerous leadership positions from Tank Platoon Leader through Squadron Command. His command experience includes Commander of Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 1st Battalion 12th US Cavalry, Commander of Charlie Company 2nd Battalion, 8th US Cavalry, 1st Cavalry Division, Fort Hood, Texas; Commander Headquarters and Headquarters Company 3rd Armored Corps Fort Hood, Texas; Commander 1st Squadron 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment, Fort Irwin, California; and interim Commander Operational Test Command, Fort Hood, Texas. His Combat deployments include two tours in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Other assignments include Aide-de-Camp to the III Corps DCG, Fort Hood, Texas; Assistant Executive Officer for the Commanding General Installation Management Command & Assistant Chief of Staff Installation Management, Pentagon, Washington DC; Armor Enlisted Branch Chief, Human Resource Command, Fort Knox, Kentucky; G33 for 8th Army and the J3 for Joint Forces Component Command-Non-combatant Evacuation Operations (JFCC-NEO) at Camp Humphreys Korea; G3 and Deputy Commander/Chief of Staff for Operational Test Command, Fort Hood, Texas, Director AEAS and LNO to the CAC HQs, Army Talent Management Task Force, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. COL Snyder is currently serving as the Director, Training Management, Combined Arms Center – Training, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

COL Snyder is married and has three daughters.