

Dr. Vince Carlisle

Deputy Director
Center for Army Leadership
Mission Command Center of Excellence
Combined Arms Center

Dr. Vince Carlisle is currently serving as the deputy director for the Center for Army Leadership. He has over 15 years of public service within the Combined Arms Center, with assignments at Headquarters, CAC; Army University; and Mission Command Center of Excellence.

He retired from active duty as a lieutenant colonel in 2008. While on active duty, he worked as a civil affairs officer with ministries of interior and defense throughout the Caribbean, and Central and South America. He also worked on three continents and in development and reconstruction for both the United Nations and NATO. His last position was with Headquarters Department of the Army, the Pentagon.

Dr. Carlisle has an undergraduate degree in Russian Area Studies from the University of Washington and a master's degree in Public Administration from Troy University. As an Army Civilian Professional, he earned a Doctorate of Philosophy in Adult, Occupational, and Continuing Education from Kansas State University. His research interests include the development of self-directedness in learning and organizational development.

He has seven children; the oldest is a captain in the Army's Cyber Corps and the youngest is in fifth grade. He resides with his wife, Leslie, in Parkville, Missouri.