

STAND ♦ STRONG

VIDEO CASE STUDIES

Resiliency and the Army Profession

A Soldier confessed to sexually assaulting SSG Mary Valdez while attending a single Soldier retreat in Hawaii. She is sharing her story to help fellow Army Professionals understand how to survive after being sexually assaulted. Facilitator guide available.

The Effects of Sexual Assault/Sexual Harassment on the Army Profession

PFC Natasha Schuette addresses the crisis of sexual harassment and sexual assault through the lens of the Army Profession with a particular focus on the trust relationships that are the bedrock of the Army Profession. Facilitator guide available.

The Effects of Sexual Assault/Sexual Harassment on the Army Profession: A Victim and Leaders Perspective

CSM Julie Guerra was the victim of sexual assault as a Private First Class. Her unit's leadership set a standard which she now uses to train and educate others on how to handle these cases. Facilitator guide available.

The Effects of Hazing and Sexual Assault on the Army Profession

SPC Jarett Wright was hazed and sexually assaulted while deployed to Iraq in 2010. He is sharing his story to help prevent similar acts from happening to others. This video explores the hazing incident, Trust in the Army Profession, and resiliency. Facilitator guide available.

AMERICA'S ARMY OUR PROFESSION

CAPE.ARMY.MIL

STAND ♦ STRONG

VIRTUAL SIMULATORS

CAPE's Virtual Simulators are interactive virtual experiences for Army Professionals that can be played on a computer. The virtual simulators place Soldiers and Civilians into realistic and relevant scenarios where they can learn by making decisions and seeing the potential real-life consequences that play out in a movie format. The virtual simulators enable Army Professionals to better understand key concepts of the Army Profession and Ethic through the lens of everyday Army situations, in garrison and deployed, and improve their ability to uphold the Army Ethic in decisions and actions.

AMERICA'S ARMY OUR PROFESSION

CAPE.ARMY.MIL

