

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COLONEL MICHAEL C. GOODMAN

Colonel Michael Goodman is the Commander, 505th Command and Control Wing, Detachment 1 at Fort Leavenworth, KS. The mission of Det. 1 is to provide airpower expertise and exercise support to Mission Command Training Program (MCTP). The wing detachment provides airpower academics during Mission Command Training and doctrinally-correct, theater-specific airpower integration and replication in MCTP exercises. Det. 1 provides Observer, Coach/Trainer support and Air Force exercise control to prepare warfighters for future operations through Army Mission Rehearsal Exercises and Warfighter Exercises. As commander, Colonel Goodman is the principal airpower advisor to the Army's Training and Doctrine Command, Combined Arms Center. He leads a team responsible for advising the command on present and future weapon systems, ordnance, tactics, procedures, capabilities and limitations as they affect Army force structure, concepts, doctrine, training, modeling, simulation, acquisition and analysis programs.

Colonel Goodman entered the Air Force in 1997 through the Reserve Officer Training Corps program at Saint Joseph's University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. After receiving his commission, Colonel Goodman served as a navigator in the AC-130H Spectre Gunship and the EC-130H Compass Call. He has flown over 130 combat missions in both Operation ENDURING FREEDOM and Operation IRAQI FREEDOM. In 2008, Colonel Goodman was selected for the Financial Management Leadership Program at Headquarters Air Education and Training Command where he served as the Chief of Budget Operations and Integration and later served as the Comptroller for Goodfellow Air Force Base, Texas. Returning to flight operations in 2011, Colonel Goodman served as an Assistant Director of Operations for the 41st Electronic Combat Squadron and later deployed to Bagram Air Base, Afghanistan, to command the 41st Expeditionary Electronic Combat Squadron during the 2013 spring fighting season. In 2014, Colonel Goodman was selected to command the 429th Expeditionary Operations Squadron, Forward Operating Locations Curacao and Aruba. Upon his return to the United States, Colonel Goodman served as the Deputy Division Chief in Combat Operations and Combat Plans and the Division Chief for Strategy at the 608th Air Operations Center, Headquarters 8th Air Force, Barksdale Air Force Base, Louisiana.
